COLLEGE

ADVISING SYLLABUS

YOUR GUIDE TO ADVISING

The advising syllabus is a tool to navigate academic resources and enhance your advising experience. Use it every quarter as a guide to understanding the advisor-student relationship, your responsibilities, important timelines, policies, and tips to be successful!

SUCCESS THROUGH ADVISING

Through actively engaging with your advisor, you will be able to:

Academic Advising is a shared responsibility between you and your advisor that includes learning outcomes and expectations for the student-advisor relationship.

Create and utilize an Educational Plan to move toward completion.

Learn how to access and utilize advising staff, resources, and tools.

Clarify, explore, and prepare for educational and career goals.

Understand and take initiative regarding relevant academic policies and procedures.

Identify and learn how to access relevant resources appropriate for individual needs.

Primary Advisors & Areas of Study

You will have a Primary Advisor assigned to you based on your Area of Study

Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics

Culinary, Hospitality & Wine

Basic & Transitional Studies (BTS) Programs

Education & Human Services

RESPONSIBILITIES

What we can expect from each other

Throughout the syllabus you will find the tools and information to help you meet the expectations below.

Advisor

During your advising appointment, your advisor will...

- Provide a safe and respectful space to ask questions, discuss interests, and express concerns.
- Be a responsive listener, provide encouragement, and collaborate to generate solutions to challenges.
- Guide decision-making to help you create an educational plan that fulfills your goals and career pathway.
- Recommend appropriate classes and help you navigate MySouth and other tools/resources to assist you in course selection and registration.
- Provide resources relevant to your individual needs.

Outside of your advising appointment, your advisor will...

- Be knowledgeable about programs and graduation requirements, policies, and procedures.
- Be responsive to students in a timely manner.
- Advocate for student success and development.
- Adhere to the guidelines set forth by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

Student

When meeting with your advisor, you are expected to...

- Take initiative to set up meetings with an advisor to complete an Educational Plan and for other questions regarding academic planning and success.
- Plan to meet with your advisor before next quarter registration opens (schedule appointments early!).
- Come to each advising appointment prepared with questions or materials for discussion.
- Actively engage with your advisor by asking questions and sharing your interests and goals.

To move toward academic success, you are responsible for...

- Checking your email account regularly, managing your inbox and responding to actionable items.
- Taking ownership of your academic success by utilizing the tools provided throughout the syllabus.
- Following through on advising recommendations in a timely manner.

ANNUAL ADVISING CYCLE

This schedule is subject to change.

An educational plan is a quarter by quarter plan of classes you will take based on your goals, program of study, transfer plans, and personal schedule. You will want to review and update your educational plan with your advisor, as needed.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Learn how to work with us!

For additional Policies and Procedures please see South's Student Handbook located at <https://tinyurl.com/SouthStudentHandbook>

Academic Student Progress

Applies to all students: Students are expected to pass and complete their coursework and maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0 or higher. Should your GPA fall below a 2.0, you will receive an Academic Alert notice. Your advisor can help you better understand this policy.

For more information, visit <http://tinyurl.com/AcademicStudentProgress>.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Applies to students receiving Financial Aid: All students receiving Financial Aid are required to maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) to continue receiving this funding source. This is separate from Academic Student Progress. It is recommended to meet with the Financial Aid Office to better understand this policy.

For more information, visit <http://tinyurl.com/FinancialAidSAP>.

Academic Calendar

The Seattle Colleges District academic calendar contains important dates and deadlines with regards to each quarter registration, withdraw/drop and tuition refund deadlines, start and end dates of classes, as well as the holiday schedule. Keep in mind that this is a district-wide calendar. Some dates vary by college and program.

*Look for South specific dates at <http://tinyurl.com/QtrlyCalendar>.
Web and PDF versions are both available (see right side column).*

Student Complaints Procedure

There is both a formal and informal process for students to report a complaint against an employee of the college or another student. For support in pursuing a complaint, contact the Dean of Student Life.

For more information, visit <http://tinyurl.com/StudentComplaintsProcedure>.
