Overview

If you are interested in the health sciences, are socially-minded, and want to help people on a large scale, a career in public health might be right for you! This pathway is designed to meet Associate in Arts degree requirements with a concentration in Public Health. Completion of this degree allows you to transfer into most bachelor's degree programs with your first two-years of schooling completed. Public health is concerned with preserving health through education, prevention, and community initiatives that range from local to global. (Read program QR code to see more)
