Saturday, October 27, 2012
9:30 a.m., Alhadeff Grill Dining Room

Tour the facilities and learn about South Seattle Community College's highly regarded Culinary Arts program at a free Saturday Open House/Information Session. You'll learn about degree and certificate options in Restaurant & Food Service Production, Catering & Banquet Operations, and Pastry & Specialty Baking.

Program faculty and staff will be on hand to answer questions about program admission, career opportunities, and student services to help you succeed.

The Open House is free and light refreshments, including pastries prepared on campus, will be served. Please do not wear sandals or open-toed shoes to the tour.
