

Work Study Job

Job Title:	Student Worker/Lab Assistant	Department:	Academic Programs
Hourly Rate:	$17.27	Supervisor:	Ronald Theofelis
Job Description
<h2>Role and Responsibilities</h2> The Hourly Assistant will be required to perform duties as assigned and directed by the Supervisory Lab Technician of Chemistry and Physics. Those duties will include laboratory maintenance, lab exercise set-up and break-down, glassware maintenance, preparing solutions, and may include staffing of Open Labs, which entails providing access to study materials and equipment in study hall. <h2>Educational Benefits</h2> This position will provide exposure to many facets of lab operations, enriching the student's knowledge by the application of scientific concepts through real-world work experience. <h2>Preferred Skills</h2> No experience necessary

Applications Accepted By:
Email: *Preferred method of contact: ronald.theofelis@seattlecolleges.edu Subject Line: Chemistry/Physics Lab Assistant Position	Mail: South Seattle College UNI100 6000 16 th Ave SW Seattle WA, 98106	Phone: (206) 934-7948