Mission Statement

The Asian American and Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institution Center (AANAPISI Center) is a centralized gathering space where Asian American, Pacific Islander, and all underserved students receive high quality, culturally relevant programs and services. The AANAPISI Center exists to collaboratively strengthen and sustain an inclusive campus to foster academic success.

Seattle Colleges is committed to the concept and practice of equal opportunity and reasonable accommodation for all its students, employees, and applicants in education, employment, services, and contracts.

Visit www.seattlecolleges.edu/nds for full statement.

AANAPISI is 100% federally funded by the U.S. Department of Education in the amount of $300,000 per year for a period of five years (Oct. 2021-Sept 2026) and is administered by South Seattle College.

This was updated 11/27. This is a Biweekly Newsletter. We are not representative of all events on-campus. If you would like to specifically advertise with AANAPISI, please send flyers to aanapisi.south@seattlecolleges.edu with flyer/information.
