

Work Study Job

Job Title:	Georgetown Campus Food Pantry & Front-End Work Study	Department:	Georgetown
Hourly Rate:	$19.97	Supervisor:	Stephanie Guy

Job Description

Role and Responsibilities

The Georgetown Campus of South Seattle College is Washington State's largest apprenticeship training institution. Serving over 3,000 apprentices and students earning everything from short-term certificates and industry-recognized credentials to Bachelor of Applied Science (BAS) degrees.

- Willingness to learn about apprenticeship and pre-apprenticeship programs
- Help create a welcoming environment at the Georgetown Campus
- Greet Georgetown students and community members directing to appropriate resources
- Support functions at the front desk of Georgetown and the Food Pantry

Educational Benefits

The Georgetown campus offers students an opportunity to gain awareness and experience in a wide range of apprenticeships and industries. Students in this role will receive student leadership experience, networking opportunities, and a deeper awareness of campus resources. The work study position creates an atmosphere to practice communication, interpersonal skills, time management, and working with a team.

Preferred Skills

- Strong interpersonal skills and ability to adapt communication style to different audiences
- Able to ask questions and follow instructions to complete tasks independently and demonstrate follow through with organization and attention to detail
- Comfortable using computers, the internet, and Microsoft Work & Outlook – Or willing to develop skills
- Respectful of differences among people

Applications Accepted By:

Email:

Stephanie.Guy@seattlecolleges.edu
Subject Line: Georgetown Work Study

Mail:

South Seattle College
Georgetown Campus
6737 Corson Avenue South
Seattle, WA 98108

Phone:

(206) 934-7935