Work Study Job

Job Title:	OFF Campus - Elementary Tutor Work-Study	Department:	Student Services
Hourly Rate:	$21.30	Supervisor:	Arron Kong

Job Description

Role and Responsibilities

Supporting academic achievement in local elementary schools to increase children's motivation for learning. As a student worker in the local Seattle Public Schools, you will support teachers, staff, and support services in various roles focused on engaging students in the learning process. You will be working with a diverse group of children with a variety of cultural, educational, and economic backgrounds.

Day to day duties may include:
-leading group reading sessions
-One on one tutoring
-Mentoring
-Basic Skills instruction
-Assisting in day-to-day classroom support
-Other duties as assigned

Educational Benefits

This is a great opportunity for anyone pursuing a career working with children in or outside a traditional classroom setting. You will get a chance to experience a live school setting in and outside a classroom setting.
- Understanding of schools and educational
- Expansion of personal and professional networks
- Pathway to employment
- Explore career paths in the educational field
- Access to Seattle Tutoring Coalition tutor trainings and materials
-Additional trainings on antiracist practices, inclusion practices, equity, cultural competency, etc.

Preferred Skills

Previous experience working with elementary children preferred
Understand the importance of education in the lives of children and the community
Ability to work independent and take direction / feedback
Cultural sensitivity / racial equity
Be a supportive, positive influence on young children

Additional Information
This position is a paid Work Study position using Federal Work Study (must be eligible for Federal Work Study from FAFSA). You must complete the onboarding and background checks from South Seattle College HR department AND the volunteer process from Seattle Public Schools (volunteer application, adult Sexual Misconduct Prevention Training, Background check).

You will be under direct supervision of local Seattle Public Schools staff for scheduling, duties, direction, etc.

This position will require a high level of self-motivation, dependability, and clear communication. Students and staff will be relying on you to be prompt and be a steady form of support for the students.

Applications Accepted By:
Email: FinancialSouth@seattlecolleges.edu Subject Line: Seattle Public Schools Tutor Work-Study	Mail: South Seattle College Financial Aid RSB 6000 16th Ave SW Seattle WA, 98106	Phone: 206-934-5317