

UNITED WAY BENEFITS HUB

Everyday Financial Tools

FREE Services for Community Members & South Seattle College Students

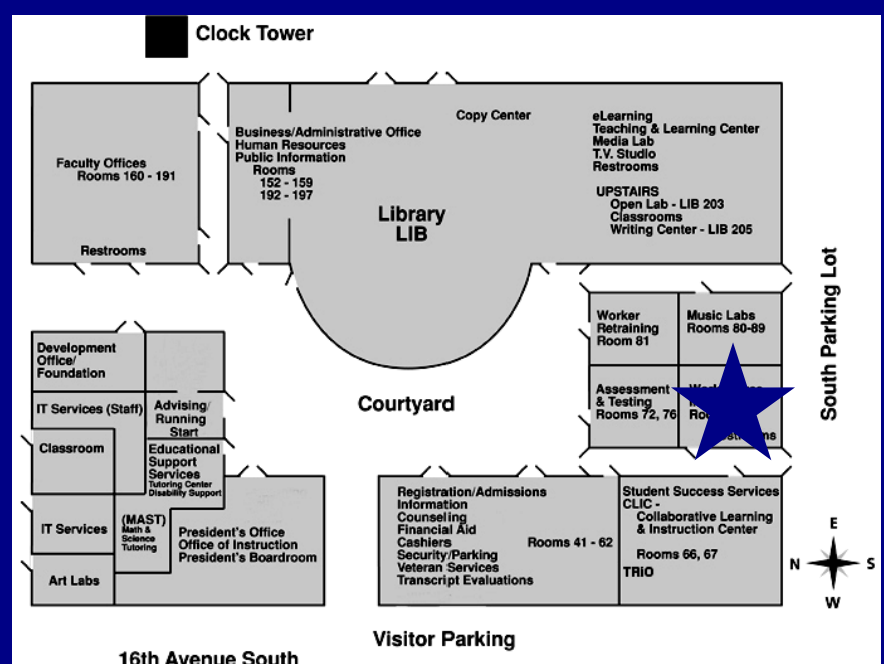

- Navigate resources to pay for college
- Build a budget and create a financial plan
- Get help enrolling in public benefits, including: Basic Food, Apple Health, and Orca LIFT

- Get connected to housing resources
- Access funding for emergencies
- Receive referrals to campus and community resources

Find us in the WorkSource Office in the Robert Smith Building
Room 79

Questions?

BenefitsHubSSC
@seattlecolleges.edu

(206) 604-9420

Benefits Hub is available to community members and South Seattle College students through a partnership between South Seattle College and United Way of King County. While most services are available to community members, select services, including housing funds and emergency funding, are available only to students currently enrolled at South Seattle College.