As a prospective student, it means you don't yet have a SeattleColleges email account set up, so you can use your personal email address until you receive a SeattleColleges email account.

Please create an AwardSpring account if you don't already have it.

After any student logs into their AwardSpring Account, they will land on the Dashboard, as seen below, and will need to click on the “Apply” button to access a specific application:

Students must answer all required questions on the application before they can submit the application. If the question is not applicable to them then they can enter “NA” or “0.” However, they must enter in all questions to submit their application.

The screenshot shows the AwardSpring application interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the EQUITY CAN'T WAIT. logo, SEATTLE COLLEGES FOUNDATION logo, a user impersonation notice for 'Test Kathie', and an email address '3noreply@mail.awardspring.com'. A sidebar on the left contains 'Dashboard', 'Scholarships', and 'Application' options. The main content area is titled 'Scholarships' and 'Seattle Central College Emergency Funds - Central Students ONLY - Fall 2022'. It features a 'Submit Application' button and two columns: 'Overview' and 'Quick Facts'. The 'Overview' section includes the purpose of the funds, contact information for help, and a note for non-Seattle Central students. The 'Quick Facts' section shows a deadline of 'Apply by Dec 09, 2022'. A prominent orange button labeled 'Apply for this Scholarship' is visible. Below this, there is a warning for non-Seattle Central students and a form field for 'First Name (Legal Name)'. A black-bordered box with a yellow background highlights the instruction: 'IMPORTANT: Students MUST answer all required questions on the application before they can submit the application. If the question is not applicable to them then they can enter “NA” or “0.”'

How can you tell when a question is required or optional? You will see (optional) next to the questions that are optional. All other questions are required and MUST be answered before you can submit your application.
