

Work Study Job

Job Title:	Seattle Promise Ambassador	Department:	Seattle Promise
Hourly Rate:	$30.00	Supervisor:	My Khanh Tran

Job Description

Role and Responsibilities

Represent Seattle; Colleges and Seattle Promise on and off campus; Engage with alumni, donors, and friends of Seattle Colleges about student life and your academic experiences; Network with distinguished Seattle Colleges and community leaders like college presidents; City leadership, and local business owners; Be a part of a high-achieving and highly-recognized team

Educational Benefits

Seattle Promise Ambassadors will have the opportunity to engage with community partners who are interested in Seattle Promise and want to learn more about the student experience. These partners may include local and national media, current and prospective donors, politicians, local organizations, and college and university leadership. Seattle Promise Ambassadors are students who are excited to share their experience with these partners. Seattle Promise Ambassadors will receive specialized student leadership training as representatives of Seattle Colleges and Seattle Promise.

Preferred Skills

Must be a current Seattle Promise student who will be in Seattle Promise for at least the next three quarters; Excellent written and verbal communication skills; Comfortable in public speaking (small to large groups); Organized and detail-oriented; Flexible schedule/willingness to try to accommodate last-minute requests

Applications Accepted By:

Email:

Mykhanh.tran@seattlecolleges.edu

Subject Line: Seattle Promise Ambassador Applicant

Mail:

South Seattle College
6000 16th Ave SW
Seattle WA, 98106

Phone:

206.934.6615

Supervisor: Email the completed form to: Kristi.white@seattlecolleges.edu

Save as: Job Title – Department Name